May it be Your will, Creator, my God and the God of my forefathers, that You bless the work of my hands without end, fulfill me from Your full hand, and from Your good storehouse fill my home and fulfill me. May You bring success to my way and paths, protect my feet and their routes, for all that live are in your hands. And may my sustenance be given over to Your hand, and sweet. And may it not be in the hands of any person, for those hands are bitter and difficult like wormwood, embarrassing and shameful.
